Mass Intention This Month

November 14, 21, and 28 are for Bob Bradley

If you are interested in having a mass intention, please see Lynnette Anderson. This is a wonderful tradition of our church to pray for others.

Father,

I abandon myself into your hands;
do with me what you will.

Whatever you may do, I thank you:
I am ready for all, I accept all.

Let only your will be done in me,
and in all your creatures -
I wish no more than this, O Lord.

Into your hands I commend my soul:
I offer it to you with all the love of my heart,
for I love you, Lord, and so need to give myself,
to surrender myself into your hands without reserve,
and with boundless confidence,
for you are my Father.
Amen.

Bishop Rice's November prayer intention

Let us pray for our family and friends who have passed away, that they may see God face to face

Padre mío, me abandono a Ti.
Haz de mí lo que quieras.

Lo que hagas de mí te lo agradezco,
estoy dispuesto a todo,
lo acepto todo.
Con tal que Tu voluntad se haga en mí
y en todas tus criaturas,
no deseo nada más, Dios mío.

Pongo mi vida en Tus manos.
Te la doy, Dios mío,
con todo el amor de mi corazón,
porque te amo,
y porque para mí amarte es darme,
entregarme en Tus manos sin medida,
con infinita confianza,
porque Tu eres mi Padre.

Amén.

Saints this Week: Wednesday, November 17: St. Elizabeth of Hungary

with great power and glory.”

Daniel spoke of a succession of four kingdoms, which would be followed by the arrival of God's definitive kingdom. This is the fulfillment of Nathan's prophecy that a son of David would reign forever.

I realize how strange all of this can sound, but there is a spiritual point of enormous significance behind all of it. We should not trust in any of the powers of the world to give us security and peace. Such peace will come only with the arrival of God's kingdom.

What you should look to is the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven. Now, is this meant in an ultimate sense? Yes, the Second Coming signals the end of the world as we know it. But the Son of Man is coming on the clouds of heaven even now, in the life of the Church.

Next Week is the Solemnity of Christ, the King of the Universe

On the last Sunday of each liturgical year, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ the King.

Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925 with his encyclical Quas Primas \("In the first"\) to respond to growing nationalism and secularism. He recognized that these related societal ills would breed increasing hostility against the Church. His encyclical reminds the faithful that while governments and philosophies come and go, Christ reigns as king forever.
